Vampires in America?

Yes, they exist; Mark Davidson knows it. And what city is more likely to be stalked by them than New Orleans?

But Lauren Crow doesn't believe in vampires. Not at first. She and her friends are spending a bachelorette weekend in the Big Easy—all fun and games until a fortune-teller predicts a gruesome death. And until Lauren meets Mark, whom she finds absolutely compelling...and quite possibly crazy. He prowls the city by night, searching out vampires. Mark is as drawn to Lauren as she is to him, and not just because she's the image of his murdered fiancée. His obsession with tracking down his lover's killer is part of a vendetta that goes even deeper than grief over his lost love.

As Lauren wrestles with desire and disbelief, sinister shadows lengthen over New Orleans. Vampires. They're threatening Lauren and her friends. And they're about to end the city's truce between the living and the undead!

Still don't get it, oh come on its called reading friends.

Leroy Barker:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Blood Red (Alliance Vampire Book 8) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
