Private detective Gavin Redford has a very dangerous enemy intent on revenge. When that criminal threatens the life of any woman he falls in love with, he has no choice but to break up with Natasha Garrett--his best friend's sister and the woman who means the world to him. No question about it, he'd rather lose her than put her in danger. But he hopes with all his heart that the thug is caught soon, because it's killing him to watch Natasha move on.

She's determined to forget the man who rejected her.

Natasha Garrett has only ever been in love once--with her brother's best friend. Unfortunately, Gavin Redford has decided he doesn't want her after all. So she will move on and forget about him.
