About the Author

Riley Weber is an author and artist who would rather write books than eat candy. He holds an Associates Degree in Fine Art and a Bachelors in Business, but his true passion lies in writing and illustrating picture books.

On the weekends, you will find Riley composing music on Pro Tools, singing the wrong words to popular songs, strumming the guitar, pounding on the piano, or building Legos with his two young boys. He and his wife recently welcomed a daughter into the family, who is a little princess. Now, a lot of Riley's free time is spent holding his daughter and trying to calm her when she cries, which is truly one of the best joys in life.

Riley loves to draw caricatures of friends, paint abstract art on canvas with acrylics, and doodle on a notebook during church on Sunday's. To learn more about Riley visit RileyWeberArt.com
