Power Play By Mike Nicol

Krista Bishop runs a security agency. For women only. Until she gets a call she can't refuse from the Secret Service, to guard two high-profile Chinese businessmen. What Krista isn't told is the Chinese are mopping up the richly rewarding abalone poaching business. They want it all. From shore to plate. A takeover that will kick three Cape Town gang lords -- known as the Untouchables -- out of business and destroy their luxury lifestyles. Abalone means power, money, drugs, guns. No longer untouchable, gang boss Titus Anders fears for the life of his daughter and calls in Krista Bishop to protect her from the madness as the gang war destroys his world. Krista's the best. She's young, tough and a long way from the violence of the streets. But now the war is everywhere. Even in her own backyard, where a secret agent is waiting for her, a gun in his hand'

Robert Dunham:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Power Play can make you feel more interested to read.

Brad Sharpe:
