By Herman A. Hoyt

The End Times By Herman A. Hoyt

An investigation of what is to come, the book guides the reader through 12 understandable, in-depth chapters. The author delves into the controversy of the end times, dealing primarily with premillennial, pretribulation eschatology, yet giving consideration to conflicting viewpoints. It is a well-documented and understandable guide to the end times and is used extensively as a text in Bible colleges, Bible institutes, and seminaries.
